In general the Council has 20 working days in which to respond to a request for information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000. Where a fee is to be charged the Clerk will write to advise you of the cost of providing the information, and the response period will cease to run. The 20 working day response period will restart from the day the Clerk receives your payment. Please note that the Council does not have to provide the information if you fail to pay within three months.
